A Guide to an in-Home Gathering Place

Kentucky Derby Week

Greetings Gathering Place Friends! CarePartners and our Gathering Places may be on hold through May 10th, but that doesn’t mean you can’t bring elements of the Gathering Place into your own home! Every year, on the first Saturday in May, the Kentucky Derby is held at Churchill Downs in Louisville, Kentucky. So, in preparation for the most exciting 2 minutes of the year, CarePartners is going to take you on a trip to “The Run for the Roses”! In this packet you will find everything you need to have a fun, joyful, and active Gathering Place in your own home.

We would love to hear back from you with pictures and stories of how you are enjoying your Kentucky Derby this week! If you have pictures or stories you are willing to share, please send them to KJordan@carepartnerstexas.org or call us at 713-682-5995. We miss you terribly and would love to hear from you!

So, enjoy the jokes! Play the games! Sing the songs! And, above all, have fun!

A Time to Reminisce

- Have you ever ridden a horse?
- Have you ever traveled to Kentucky? What do you think it’s like there?
- It is traditional to where hats at the Derby, have you ever worn a fascinator? Or a derby hat? Do you enjoy wearing hats? Do you remember having to wear hats to church?
- Here are some images of some of the more ridiculous Kentucky Derby hats in recent years. What do you think? Which one is your favorite? Which one is the most ridiculous? Do they make you laugh?

Indoor or outdoor horseshoe set
Directions- Toss horseshoes at stake 6 feet away from throw line. Each player gets three throws. 1 point for each shoe that rests against or wraps around the stake.
Cowboy Hat Card Toss:
Place several cowboy hats in a line or small area on the floor. Toss playing cards one at a time towards the hats. Player gets two points for every card that lands in the hats that are closest and five points for cards that land in the hats that are farther away. (If you don’t have a cowboy hat, ball caps will do)

Arts and Crafts
• It is impossible to find a horse race related craft! So we included something different this week! The craft can be done with crayons or colored pencils if you do not have paint.

DIY Geometric Canvas
What you need:
• Canvas
• Acrylic paint (any colors that make you happy)
• Paint or foam brush
• Mod Podge
• Glitter (optional)

1. Tape geometric shapes with painter’s tape onto a canvas.
2. Paint inside them with acrylic paint with a regular or foam brush
3. For the glitter, use Mod Podge for the base a then add glitter on top.
4. Sit tight for it to dry completely and remove the tape.
5. Paint Mod Podge over the top for a good finish. If you did glitter, use a finishing spray or hairspray will work the same way.

Music

Music is a great way to engage different areas of your brain. There are some lyrics to songs below, but if you don’t know the tune, you can play your favorite songs on YouTube and search for the lyrics online.

Pro Tip: You can put rice, beans, or something similar inside several of those plastic Easter eggs or an empty water bottle, seal them with some tape, and use them as noise makers for while you are singing!

Blue Moon of Kentucky by Patsy Kline

Blue moon of Kentucky keep on shining
Shine on the one that's gone and proved untrue
Blue moon of Kentucky keep on shining
Shine on the one that's gone and left me blue

It was on a moonlight night
The stars were shining bright
When they whispered from on high
Your love has said good-bye

Blue moon of Kentucky keep on shining
Shine on the one that's gone and said good-bye

Kentucky Rain by Elvis

Seven lonely days
And a dozen towns ago
I reached out one night and you were gone
Don't know why you'd run
What you're running to or from
All I know is I want to bring you home

So I'm walking in the rain
Thumbing for a ride
On this lonely Kentucky back road
I've loved you much too long
My love's too strong
To let you go, never knowing
What went wrong
Kentucky rain keeps pouring down
And up ahead's another town that I'll go walking through

With the rain in my shoes (rain in my shoes)
Searchin' for you
In the cold Kentucky rain
In the cold Kentucky rain
Showed your photograph
To some old gray-bearded men
Sitting on a bench outside a gen'r'al store
They said "yes, she's been here"
But their memory wasn't clear
Was it yesterday?
No, wait, the day before?

Finally got a ride
With a preacher man who asked
"Where you bound on such a cold dark afternoon?"
As we drove on through the rain
As he listened, I explained
And he left me with a prayer
That I'd find you

Kentucky rain keeps pouring down
And up ahead's another town that I'll go walking through
With the rain in my shoes (rain in my shoes)
Searchin' for you
In the cold Kentucky rain
In the cold Kentucky rain
In the cold Kentucky rain
In the cold Kentucky rain

Kentucky Woman by Neil Diamond

She shines with her own kind of light
She'd look at you once
And a day that's all wrong
Looks all right
And I love her
God knows, I love her

Kentucky woman
If she get to know you
She goin' to own you
Kentucky woman

Well, she ain't the kind
Makes heads turn at the drop of her name
But something inside
That she's got turn you on just the same
And she loves me
God knows, she loves me
Kentucky woman
If she get to know you
She goin’ to own you
Kentucky woman
I don’t want much
The good Lord’s earth beneath my feet
A gentle touch
From that one girl, and life is
Sweet and good
Ain’t no doubt
I’m talkin’ about
Kentucky woman
If she get to know you
She goin’ to own you
Kentucky woman

Five Life Lessons you can Learn from a Horse
By: Emily Fought, September 14, 2018

Horses live life for the moment. They enjoy grass when it’s available, sleep when they need to, and form meaningful relationships with those around them. Sounds like they got life all figured out! It seems people could learn a little bit by just watching a horse. Don’t be surprised if you learn these life lessons while at the barn!

1. Get dirty: Let your hair loose and get some mud under your fingernails. Horses enjoy a good roll and are not afraid of getting a little muddy. You shouldn’t be either!
2. Cherish each meal: Take time to enjoy the food you eat. Slow down and taste it! Your horse is all about their food. They live to eat. I’ve never seen a happier horse than one that has been let out on spring grass for the first time that year. Everything is just so yummy!
3. Know where you fit in: Your horse knows their place in the herd. They may test the waters and throw their weight around every once in a while, but life is too short to be in a constant power struggle. It’s okay to be a follower, unless you were born to be a leader. Find your place in the world and be content.
4. Learn to say no: When your horse is uncertain of something, they put the breaks on. If it’s too much too soon, your horse isn’t afraid to refuse. Even if you have to let people down, it’s okay to stand up for yourself by saying no.
5. Make friends for life: Horses depend on each other. They put their lives in the hands of the herd. By trusting one another, they get to relax and enjoy their surroundings more. Don’t be afraid to make meaningful relationships!

Katelin’s Reflection: I am not familiar with horses. I never grew up on a farm and have only ever managed to just fall off horses. Riding was never my thing. But I’ve always thought that they were beautiful, majestic, and powerful creatures. But, I have enjoyed learning this week some neat facts about Horses. Horses are family oriented. They get as attached to their people as much as their people get to them. And they prefer to be in relationship with other horses or goats. They also enjoy play! They love to romp and play in a field of grass or the snow. I’ve also seen some really cute videos of horses playing fetch!

I think that there must be so many more surprising things out there, just waiting for us to find them. Experiencing the beauty of the creation around us will always bring with it that sense of wonder that I, at least, have for horses. As we move into the 6th week of social distancing, I would encourage you to spend some time wondering about the creation around you. Wonder about your own remarkable creation. I would even encourage you to be like a horse, reach out to your people and make any connection you can. And maybe even consider using this Gathering Place at Home to play!

Kentucky Derby Recipes

Bourbon Meatballs

What you need

- 1 jar of apricot preserves (about a cup)
- ¼ cup of brown sugar
- 2 Tbsp hot chili sauce (use less if you don’t like it spicy)
- ½ cup bourbon
- ½ cup barbecue sauce
- 1 Tbsp molasses
- ¼ cup of water
- Homemade or frozen meatballs
- Cooked rice

1. Start with homemade meatballs or a bag of premade meatballs.
2. Brown meat balls on all sides.
3. Mix ingredients for bourbon sauce (apricot preserves, brown sugar, chili sauce, bourbon, barbecue sauce, molasses, and water) in a deep skillet and simmer on low for 6-8 minutes until it begins to thicken
4. When sauce begins to thicken add meatballs and warm through. Serve meatballs on toothpicks or over rice.

Kentucky Derby Pie 3

What you need:

- 4 large eggs
- 1 cup Sugar (1/2 White, 1/2 Brown) (It 'S not, of the world If you only have one kind of sugar, but I've found this to be the best sugar ratio)
- 1 cup Semi-Sweet Chocolate Chips
- 6 ounces Pecan Halves (or Pieces, halves are prettier, but I usually go with pieces because it's easier to slice through)
- 1 cup Corn Syrup
- 1 stick Melted Butter
- 1 teaspoon Vanilla Extract
- ¼ teaspoon Salt

3 Recipe by Becky Villareal
• 2 Frozen Pie Shells (I use deep dish, so there’s no chance of spilling over into the oven)

Directions:
1. Mix sugar & flour.
2. Add other ingredients and mix well.
3. Pour into an unbaked 9" pie crust and bake at 325 degrees for 1 hr.

BONUS

Cowboy Wisdom
• Always drink upstream from the herd.
• Always take a good look at what you're about to eat. It's not so important to know what it is, but it's critical to know what it was.
• Don't worry about bitin' off more'n you can chew; your mouth is probably a whole lot bigger'n you think.
• If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop digging.
• It's better to keep your mouth shut and look stupid than open it and prove it.
• If it doesn't seem to be worth the effort it probably isn't.
• Just 'cause trouble comes visiting doesn't mean you have to offer it a place to sit down.
• Lettin' the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin' it back.
• Nature gave us all something to fall back on, and sooner or later we all land flat on it.
• The quickest way to double your money is to fold it over and put it back into your pocket.
• The only good reason to ride a bull is to meet a nurse.
• Treat a woman like a racehorse, and she'll never be a nag.
• Don't squat with your spurs on.
• Don't let your yearnings get ahead of your earnings.
• Don't dig for water under the outhouse.
• Don't go in if you don't know the way out.
• Don't mess with something that ain't bothering you.
• Never drive black cattle in the dark.
• Never approach a bull from the front, a horse from the rear or a fool from any direction.
• Never ask a barber if you need a haircut.
• Never slap a man who's chewing tobacco.
