Wondering how to Start Downsizing?

---

About Us

We started our business with the goal of helping people. It just so happened that with our skills of organization and problem solving paired with desire to ease peoples burdens made helping people "rightsize" a natural progression.

Together we have built a team and a process that cures many of the classic moving headaches but also diminishes the emotional strains that seem to arise specifically when making such a significant transition. Empowering people to make a life they choose is the best part of what we do and we look forward to helping you!

Let us help you with the best move of your life

Which Scenario describes you?

Scenario A

You have help with packing but are just unsure what items to take or how best to move into this community and need a kickstart.

Scenario B

You've been pairing down for a while or have lived in your home less than 5 years. You have help from family or friends or just enjoy doing things on your own but need help with the heavy lifting or guidance on what will fit in the smaller space.

Scenario C

You've been described as a keeper of things and you feel overwhelmed with where to start. You're willing to make decisions but not certain how to begin or where things will fit in the new space. You may struggle with letting go of collections or unsure of what to do with the unneeded items.

Scenario D

This entire process just feels like a burden and you don't know how to start. You've lived in your home for more than 10 years and would prefer to just have everything handled.
